CITY NEWS.

—J. R. Beaver of Marion, Ind., president of the Standard Four Tire company, was in the city today to attend a meeting of the directors of the company.

FUNERAL NOTICE.

HINSON—The funeral for the late Jesse Hinson will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence, Oregon and Missouri Ays.

CITY NEWS.

—Don't fail to attend the Central's union suit sale tomorrow.

—Special, sugar $1.50, crackers, 7c per lb by the box. Cash only. Fred DeYoung.

—Charles O. Conn, Richard Wells and A. M. Wyllie of Keokuk have been granted hunting licenses.

—Choice poultry and finest roasts of beef, veal, pork and lamb. At Jos. Haubert's, the reliable meat market, 709 Main.

—Born to Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Richards, a seven and a half pound daughter. Mr. Richards is the superintendent of the Standard Four Tire Co. here.

—The boys of the Carey school have been invited to meet at the Y. M. C. A. tomorrow morning at 8:30 o'clock for a drill, swim and athletic games. The boys of other schools will be invited on succeeding Saturdays.

—C. M. Erwin, residing near the Des Moines river bridge, has been appointed special officer by the city of Keokuk to clear the bottoms of kypales and horse traders who have been camping near the bridge recently. He was supplied with his badge today.

—The Emporium for better work in repairing, cleaning and pressing clothing, 25 North Fourth. Phone 247.

—Watch the mail men and you can already notice evidence of early Christmas shopping. The parcel post business is beginning to show the effect of the holiday trading. It is a good idea to shop early and mail your packages early so they can reach their destination in time. You can mark them, do not open until Christmas.

—Mr. Page of the Lake View Motor club will cater to private dinners and banquets at your home or elsewhere.

—Ben H. Menke, system operator of the Mississippi River Power Co., devoted the greater part of the past month in making an inspection of the substations between Burlington and St. Louis, and this week he is going over the route of the transmission line to St. Louis making an inspection of discarded insulators with a view of saving such as are serviceable.

—Regular meeting Keokuk council No. 536 tonight at 8 o'clock. Hawkins' hall, Eighth and Main. Visiting brethren fraternally invited to attend. G. Lloyd Norman, regent; J. L. Annable, secretary.

—Montrose Journal: Tuesday evening a government agent from the fisheries at Fairport, Iowa, came in on the train with fourteen cans of fish from the hatcheries and put them in the river here at this point. There were several kinds of fish, but we did not see the gentleman himself, so did not learn the particular varieties. This will add to the fish in the river and give us both food and sport.

—Warsaw Bulletin: R. O. Marsh, now representative of the Strauss Bascul Steel Co., at Washington, D. C., was a Warsaw visitor last week. He recently negotiated a contract with the government for a number of high power search lights, for use along the sea coast, some to be mounted on towers, some on cars and some on motors. He divides his time between Chicago and Washington, and took advantage of a trip west to visit Warsaw to look after some business matters. Mrs. Marsh and the children will probably remain in the east until spring.

—For Sunday dinner. Markley's roasts.

—In dismissing the petit jury of the November term Wednesday, Judge Hamilton spoke extemporaneously upon the purpose of the jury system of the courts of the United States, says the Ft. Madison Democrat. He stated that Lee county was given to free discussion of the expense of the jurors in the local district courts and that often the real value of the system was not appreciated. The right of the jurymen, he explained, was second only to the right of the ballot in the fundamentals of American citizenship and interpretation of the laws of the land and their application. His remarks were listened to most attentively and with the greatest appreciation.

—Pucketchuck lodge No. 43, meets every Friday evening at 8:00 o'clock. Geo. A. Buras, N. G.; George W. Immebart, permanent secretary. Work in first degree.

ANNOUNCEMENT.
The report is being circulated, presumably by persons wanting the return of sixty-five cent ice, that the Keokuk Pure Ice company is going out of business.

This report is not true. We are still and will continue to be in the business, keeping the quality of our product up and the price down.

We appreciate the large patronage we have had and the loyalty of many of our customers and we are planning to give them an improved delivery service next year.

Do Your Christmas Shopping Early

But 18 Shopping Days Until Christmas

And do it at Well's, if there is a man or boy on your list to choose gifts for.

Men and boys are sensible beings. We know. We've been buying for them for more than thirty years. We've studied their wants and needs—and provided them so well they've made this the largest men's and boys' store in town.

Therefore ours is the logical place for women to shop for useful and sensible gift articles for their men folks.

Umbrellas, shaving mirrors, toilet sets, military brushes, handkerchiefs, mufflers, gloves, sleeping garments, underwear, hosiery, bath robes, smoking jackets, overcoats, suits, hats, fur caps, leather novelties and many other articles of apparel that are needed and that would give extra Christmas joy because you are the Santa Claus.

The Difference

Between our ready-to-wear department and some others becomes apparent the instant a person enters the room. No old goods in sight, nothing but new, choice, recently received merchandise.

SUITS

In Ladies' and Misses' Suits we are now showing a very attractive line. Anticipating that a great many customers would defer their purchases until rather late in the season, we allowed the manufacturers of high grade suits to send us garments daily.

COATS

The same is true of coats. Never have we had such a collection of Coats in the various styles and materials as we are now offering for your inspection.

WAISTS

With your new suit, you will certainly want a dainty waist of Georgette Crepe, Chiffon, Crepe de Chine, or one of those attractive, bright silk plaids. A full stock in all the sizes awaits you.

FURS

A splendid showing of all the new things in Furs. This line must be seen to be appreciated. This is a good time to make your Christmas selections. You can surely find what you want at prices to suit all.
